STAR OF THE SEA PARISH

Third Sunday of Easter - May 5, 2019

Pastor's Corner

Dear Parishioners,

Today is a very happy day for many of our families who will have a child receiving the Holy Eucharist for the first time at our annual First Communion Mass this afternoon. It is a memorable time for these children, and a blessed memory for all of us as we recall when we made our First Communion. Let us all pray for the spirit of thanksgiving as we ponder the gift of the Eucharist given by the Lord for our journey of life, and renew our spirit of reverence for the sacredness of this most holy Sacrament.

We're now in the first weeks of our Project Advance Appeal, and our hope is that you will respond generously to this annual fund raising effort. Our materials are now available on line and for those households that we don't have an email address for you will receive your envelope by way of the normal mail system. If by chance you are not registered with the parish then please go on line to the parish web site and respond to the promptings, or come by the office and pick up the materials in person. We need everyone's participation.

Our house guest, Fr. Larkin, had a health crisis this past week and is currently in hospital after undergoing surgery. Please keep him in your prayers. And in this same train of thought, I'm pleased to see that the four week Pastoral Care Visitation Program concluded last Saturday with about 35 participants that took this extensive training. They will now be organizing themselves for the purpose of providing support to frail and lonely parishioners who are in their homes or in a residential care facility, especially those who may be feeling isolated and disconnected from the parish community. Teams of visitors will now be putting their training into practice, and I thank them for their commitment to this new ministry among us for the sake of our senior and frail parishioners.

Have a good week,

Fr. Dion

SACRAMENTS

Baptism

We are excited to welcome your child into our faith community! ALL Parents and Godparents are required to attend a Baptism Class prior to scheduling a Baptism. The next class is on Saturday, May 18th, 10:00am at Good Shepherd Church. Please register by contacting the Parish Office 604-531-5739.

Marriage

Couples wishing to marry need to meet with one of our priests a minimum of 4 months prior to the wedding date, in order to complete the proper marriage preparation course requirements before a wedding can be celebrated.

Were you Married outside the Catholic Church? Catholics who exchange vows in the presence of ministers from other religious traditions or civil officials are not considered validly married in the eyes of the Catholic Church. Regardless of what happened in the past, the Church invites you to bring new meaning to your lives by embracing the vocation of marriage and dedicating your family's mission to sharing God's love. Please make an appointment with one of our priests to discuss having your marriage convalidated, or "blessed".

Hospital / Care Home Communion Visits Please remember to let the Parish Office know whenever you or a loved one is hospitalized or moves into a care home in our community. The Parish has a dedicated group of people who will bring Holy Communion weekly to you or yours.

Sacrament of the Sick or Anointing is administered both to the dying and to those who are gravely ill or are about to undergo a serious operation, for the recovery of health and for spiritual strength. Please contact the Parish Office to arrange.

GOOD SHEPHERD SUNDAY is May 12, 2019

Next Sunday, the Church will be marking the 56th annual World Day of Prayer for Vocations – a time when the whole Church is united in praying that more men will answer God's call to be the visible face of the Good Shepherd in our world. Hear Archbishop Miller's special message at: rcav.flocknote.com/note/3820057/video/103070723

Next weekend's 2nd collection is for the WORK OF VOCATIONS. This Diocesan collection supports seminarians studying to become priests for the Archdiocese of Vancouver. Thank you for your generosity.

Fr. Mike Sermon for Easter 3C, John 21:1-19 "Dark Night Fishing or Resurrection?" - April 19, 2010
interruptingthesilence.com

When life gets difficult, when we become lost, confused, and afraid, when the changes of life are not what we wanted or think we deserve we tend to run away. We try to go back to the way it was before – to something safe, something familiar. Often we revert to old patterns of behavior and thinking. Even when we know better and do not want to go backwards it seems easier than moving forward.

In today's Gospel reading, Peter and six others have returned to the sea. They have left Jerusalem. They have come home to the Sea of Tiberias, the place where it all began. Discipleship, the upper room, the cross, the empty tomb, the house with its locked doors are some 80 miles to the South. Peter decides to go fishing. He knows how to do that. It is familiar and comfortable. Perhaps it takes him back to life before Jesus. The others are quick to join him.

Could it be that Peter is not really trying to catch fish as much as he is fishing for answers? We can leave the places and even the people of our life but we can never escape ourselves or our life. Wherever you go, there you are. Peter may have left Jerusalem but he cannot get away from three years of discipleship, the last supper, the arrest, a charcoal fire, denials, a crowing rooster. He cannot leave behind the cross, the empty tomb, the house with his doors locked tight, the echoes of "Peace be with you". So he fishes.

Peter fishes for answers. What have I done? What were those three years about? Who was Jesus? Where is he? Who am I? What will I do now? Where will I go? What will happen to me? Peter is searching for meaning, a way forward, a place in life. Peter is dark night fishing.

We have all spent time dark night fishing; asking the same questions as Peter, looking for our place in life, seeking peace, and some sense of understanding and meaning. More often than not dark night fishing happens in the context of the failures, losses, and sorrows of our lives. It happens when we come face to face with the things we have done and left undone. We have all been there, fishing for answers in the darkness.

"Children, you have no fish, have you," Jesus says. This is more a statement of fact than a question. Jesus is not asking for a fishing report. He is commenting on the reality and emptiness of Peter's and the other disciples' lives. Peter is living in the pain and the past of Good Friday. He is fishing on the Good Friday side of the boat and the net is empty. There are no fish, no answers, no way forward. The nets of dark night fishing contain nothing to feed or nourish life.

Wonder if we have been fishing on the wrong side of the boat? Jesus seems to think so. "Cast your net to the right side of the boat," Jesus says, the resurrection side of the boat. This movement of the net from one side of the boat to the other symbolizes the disciples' resurrection. It is the great passover. Jesus calls us to move out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life. In so doing we see and proclaim, "It is the Lord!" and:

- Emptiness gives way to the abundance of a net full of fish, large ones, a hundred fifty-three of them;
- Darkness dawns a new day with new light;
- A new charcoal fire kindles hospitality in place of the cold ashes of rejection;
- The last supper has become the first breakfast;
- Confessions of love overcome denials of fear.

"It is the Lord!" Dark night fishing is over! This is Easter. Good Friday is real. Pain, death, sin are a reality of life. But the greater and final reality is Easter resurrection. "Follow me," Jesus says, "and live as resurrected people. Follow me and fish in a different place. Follow me." "Follow me" is the invitation to examine where we have been fishing. On which side of the boat do we fish? On which side of the cross do we live? Good Friday or Easter resurrection.
