Pastor's Corner

Dear Parishioners,

Today is often referred to as Good Shepherd Sunday and our focus is on the prayer of the Church for the blessing of new vocations to the priesthood and consecrated religious life. Our Office of Vocations has prepared an official Archdiocesan Vocations Prayer Card which is being distributed to everyone this Sunday, and our hope is that it becomes a part of the prayer routine of all of our families, especially those with children at home.

The family home is the first seminary or novitiate. It is the place where faith and holiness of life begins, and where the voice of the Good Shepherd is heard in the love and actions of both mom and dad. It is where self-sacrifice is witnessed and forgiveness is experienced as parents and children learn to love each other in the communion of the family. So today we also give special thanks to God for our mothers, and we pray for their good intentions at our Masses.

And to all our moms: "Happy Mother's Day!"

Have a nice week, Fr. Dion

This Sunday's Mass Readings

1ST READING: Acts 13: 14, 43-52
RESPONSORIAL: Psalm 100: 1-3, 5
2ND READING: Revelation 7:9, 14-17
GOSPEL: John 10: 27-30

Pope Francis Homily for 4th Sunday of Easter 2013 and 2016 www.thepopespeaks.com

In today's Gospel Jesus is presented as the Good Shepherd and says, "My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me; and I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish, and no one shall snatch them out of my hand" (John 10: 27-28). These words help us to understand that no one can call himself a follower of Jesus, if he does not listen to His voice. And this "listening" should not be understood in a superficial way, but in an engaging way, with true mutual understanding, from which one can come to a generous following, expressed in the words, 'and they follow me' (v. 27). It is a matter of listening not only with ears, but listening with the heart!

And so, the image of the shepherd and the sheep indicates the close relationship that Jesus wants to establish with each one of us ~ a relationship which mirrors his own relationship with the Father: a relationship of reciprocal belonging in full trust, in intimate communion. He calls them and they recognize his voice, they respond to his call and follow him. The mystery of his voice is evocative: only think that from our mother's womb we learn to recognize her voice and that of our father; it is from the tone of a voice that we perceive love or contempt, affection or coldness. Jesus' voice is unique! If we learn to distinguish it, he guides us on the path of life, a path that goes beyond even the abyss of death.

In verse 29, Jesus says: "My Father, who has given them to me..." referring to his sheep. This is very important and a profound mystery. If I feel drawn to Jesus, if his voice warms my heart, it is thanks to God the Father who has sown within me the desire for love, for truth, for life, for beauty... and Jesus is all this in fullness! This helps us understand the mystery of vocation and especially of the call to a special consecration. Sometimes Jesus calls us, he invites us to follow him, but perhaps we do not realize that it is he who is calling? Have you sometimes heard the Lord's voice - in a desire, in a worry? Did he invite you to follow him more closely? Ask Jesus what he wants of you and be brave! Be brave! Ask him this!

Jesus is our guide, our teacher, our friend, our model, but above all he is our Saviour. In fact, the following expressions from the Gospel passage affirm, "I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish, and no one shall snatch them out of my hand" (v. 28). Who can say that? Only Jesus, because the "hand" of Jesus is one with the "hand" of the Father, and the Father is "greater than all" (v. 29).

These words communicate to us a sense of absolute security and immense tenderness. Our life is fully secure in the hands of Jesus and the Father, which are a single thing: a unique love, a unique mercy, revealed once and for all in the sacrifice of the Cross. To save the lost sheep which we all are, the Shepherd became lamb, and let himself be our sacrificial victim so as to take upon himself and to take away the sin of the world. In this way he has given us life, life in abundance! This mystery is renewed, in an always surprising humility, on the Eucharistic table. It is there that the sheep gather to nourish themselves; it is there that they become one, among themselves and with the Good Shepherd.

Because of this we are no longer afraid: our life is now saved from eternal damnation.. Nothing and no one can take us from the hands of Jesus, because nothing and no one can overcome his love! This is what St. Paul means when he writes: "What then shall we say to this? If God is for us, who can be against us? He who did not spare his own Son but handed him over for us all, how will he not also give us everything else along with him? Who will bring a charge against God's chosen ones? ... What will separate us from the love of Christ? Will anguish, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or the sword?... No, in all these things we conquer overwhelmingly through him who loved us. For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor present things, nor future things, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord" (Romans 8: 31-39)

2019

DONATE ONLINE
to Project Advance

Last weekend, the 2019 Project Advance annual appeal was officially launched in our parish.

The 2019 Project Advance Appeal is highlighting our youth and young adult ministries as well as our Catholic schools. This year, the archdiocesan goal is to raise $3.25 million through the Appeal. These funds are critical in fostering our mission of evangelization, which aims to strengthen and proclaim our faith through life-giving ministry and outreach programs.

At Star of the Sea, our goal is to raise $260,000, and after payment of our Archdiocesan assessment of $125,000, the "life-giving ministry" our rebate will go towards is the needs of our youth.

Why the Youth? Because they are the next generation of leaders in our parish, our communities, and the world! Let us invest in our young people now by providing community and faith formation from which friendships, rooted in a relationship with Jesus, can grow and young people be transformed into fully devoted apostles of Jesus. They are both the now and the future of our church!

Project Advance appeal emails went out this past week. For parishioners who have not provided us an email address or do not have an email address, please pick up a Project Advance brochure and a copy of Fr. Dion's letter in the church foyer. Follow the instructions in the brochure on how to use the tear off envelope. However, we encourage everyone to take advantage of being able to make your Project Advance donation online.

On our parish website at starofthesea.ca/donate-project-advance, donations can be charged to your Visa, American Express, Discovery or MasterCard.

This year, we've decided to have a little fun with the Project Advance appeal by having three draws for prizes available to donors. In order to win one of the prizes, you must have made your pledge by the specified dates in Fr. Dion's letter. Each parishioner who makes a pledge before any of the specified dates will have their name entered in the draw barrel. Once a parishioner has made their pledge, they are in the draw barrel for all subsequent draws they are eligible for. More details will be in future bulletins.

If you missed this year's Project Advance video which was shown at Masses, you can watch it online at projectadvance.ca
