Pastor's Corner

Dear Parishioners,

On this weekend we are inaugurating the practice of giving Holy Communion after the 5pm Mass on Saturday and the 9am Mass on Sunday, to those who come to the parking lot at Good Shepherd and follow the drive-thru line up towards the front steps and receiving the Eucharist while remaining in their cars. Those who intend to receive must extend their arms and open hands towards the open windows of their car, saying their "Amen" when the priest offers them: "The Body of Christ." Each recipient must consume the host immediately, before driving away.

This is not the ideal way of distributing the Eucharist to the faithful, but it is an emergency measure during these times when we are not allowed to have people inside the church for Mass. We hope that those who receive in this way will have attended Mass in their homes, and then use the travel time to the church as a prayerful way of "lining up" just like we do when we're in the church.

*NB There is an allowance for up to 50 cars to be in the parking lot at once, which could be used by those watching the Mass from their electronic devices while its going on, and then be right there for Communion once Mass is over. They would be gone by the time those who were coming from home began to arrive.

Our final candle on the Advent Wreath is lit today, with the Feast of Christmas just a few days away. The parish office will be closed at Noon on Dec. 24th, and closed on Dec. 25th, 26th, 27th and 28th, with a similar schedule for the New Year's weekend. Please look to our parish website for information and updates.

And on behalf of the priests and staff of the parish, I would like to extend to all a peaceful and joyous Christmas Feast. May the person of the Christ Child be the source of all God's blessings for you and your loved ones.

Have a peaceful week,

Fr. Dion

DRIVE UP HOLY COMMUNION

AFTER LIVESTREAM MASS

Reminders:

1. The Archbishop's dispensation of Sunday Mass continues. Therefore, we are not obligated to receive Communion. Rather, Drive-up Holy Communion is available for those who desire to receive.
2. Please stay home if you are a vulnerable member of the community or if you are sick.
3. Wear a face covering as per Provincial Health Order.

Before Communion:

1. Participate in the celebration of the liturgy by viewing our livestreamed Mass on YouTube <https://www.youtube.com/user/SOSParish>
2. Please also try to receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation to prepare for Holy Communion. See Regular Confession schedule and Additional Confession schedule.

Drive Up Communion:

1. Drive up to the front entryway at Good Shepherd Church and remain in your car. One of our priests will approach your car to offer you the Body of Christ. You will be directed to enter from the north driveway and exit from the south driveway.
2. You must receive in your hand.
3. Please do not park in the parking lot. You can say a silent prayer in your car for a few moments as you leave the premises.

Home Visit:

Those who are elderly or sick or those who cannot drive are invited to call the Parish Office to arrange for a priest or communion minister to bring them Holy Communion if they so desire.

Pope Francis: 'Return Home' Through the Sacrament of Confession.

Pope Francis spoke about the importance of returning to God, the loving Father, in the sacrament of reconciliation. "But think of this: to return to God is to return to the embrace, the embrace of a father... He is capable of transforming us, he is capable of changing the heart, but he wants to give us the first step: to return. It is not going to God, no: it is returning home!"

CONFESSION SCHEDULE at Good Shepherd Church

Regular weekly Confession:

Wednesdays 6:30PM - 7:30PM
Saturdays 10AM - 11AM

Additional times for Confession:

Mon. Dec. 21: 6:30PM - 7:30PM
Tues. Dec. 22: 6:30PM - 7:30PM

My daughter, just as you prepare in My presence, so also you make your confession before Me. The person of the priest is, for Me, only a screen. Never analyse what sort of a priest it is that I am making use of; open your soul in confession as you *would to Me, and I will fill it with My light. (1725)

--St. Faustina, Divine Mercy in My Soul*

This Sunday's Mass Readings:

2 Samuel 7:1-5, 8-11, 16
Psalm 89:2-5, 27, 29
Romans 16:25-27
Luke 1:26-38

Reflecting on the Gospel on the Fourth Sunday of Advent from the Living Liturgy book published by Liturgical Press www.litpress.org

The heavens have been torn open; God has come down, not with mountain quaking and fire burning, but in the gentle descent of the Spirit who broods over the womb of Mary of Nazareth. And as at the first creation life was called forth, so now the first cell of the new creation is conceived. The Shekinah, the cloud of the presence of the Most High, overshadows Mary (Exod 40:35), and the Son of God is at home among us.

During Advent the Liturgy of the Word tells us that we bump into God in strange places: in the poor, in crowds, and, strangest of all, in the obscure village of Nazareth and one of its backwater young women. Mary is a powerless female in a world ruled by males; poor, in a highly stratified society; found to be pregnant before she cohabits with her husband, and so obviously not carrying his child to validate her existence. That she would have "found favour with God" is hugely surprising, especially to Mary!

The Lukan biblical imagination has captured the imagination of artists down through the centuries. With their own prophetic insight, they have set the extraordinary faith of Mary among familiar things: a half-read book, a meal in preparation, a door opened on children and animals at play, people passing by. One of the more unusual depictions is that by Henry Ossawa Tanner (1859-1937). In a Middle Eastern-style bedroom, Mary sits enfolded in the heavy drapes of bedclothes and her own robe, her gaze attentive. All is simplicity, not luxury, and there is no winged angel. What Mary's gaze is fixed on is a tall, thin pillar of white cloud at the end of her bed. Perhaps the artist is remembering the presence of God, the "angel" of Exodus 14:19, described as a cloud, that led the Israelites into their future, would lead Mary into hers, and will lead us through the ordinary and familiar events and places where God is present - if we will only recognize him and respond with our own, "Behold, I am the handmaid of the Lord. May it be done to me according to your word."

Every Advent, we are challenged to have the attentiveness of Mary to the flutter of Christ-life that stirs in the womb of our complacency. So often our world seems starved of star; and so often we watch or participate in rituals of mourning for acts of terrorism, natural disaster, the local tragedies of road deaths, or other dark events. Usually in these rituals there are candles: small pieces of self-consuming wax and flame that say light has more right to exist in our world than darkness. This is the message, too, of our Advent wreath as we light the last of its four candles. But those candles, like all ritual candles, will burn out. It is up to us, disciples of the Light of the World, to catch fire from Christ's mystery and bring something of this fire and light into our own lives and, especially, into the lives of those for whom Christmas may not be a feast of joy but a time of darkness that stirs painful memories of those with whom they can no longer celebrate because of death, separation, divorce, family quarrels. For the friendless, the homeless, the abused, Christmas may arouse bitter comparison and regrets. The fire we catch from Christ, our readiness to be consumed like him in the flame of loving service of our sisters and brothers, may be as simple as a gift, as a visit, a letter, a phone call, an invitation to a meal, a present to the parish "Giving Tree". But it will mean that, together we will truly celebrate something of a "Happy Christmas".

I HEARD GOD LAUGH
 written by Matthew Kelly.

Pick up your family's copy of this book from Good Shepherd Church while supplies last.

About I HEARD GOD LAUGH:

Is Your Life Working?

Most of us are trying to put together the jigsaw puzzle we call life without a very important piece. Over time this becomes incredibly frustrating. In this extraordinary book, Matthew Kelly powerfully demonstrates that we cannot live the life we have imagined, or experience the joy we yearn for, unless we learn to tend the soul. From there, with his classic style of practical wisdom, he teaches us how to remedy this problem.

When our bodies are hungry, our stomachs growl. When our souls are hungry, we become irritable, restless, confused, overwhelmed, exhausted, anxious, discontent, and tend to focus on the things that matter least and neglect the things that matter most.

Are you taking care of your soul? Are you feeding it and nurturing it? Or are you ignoring it and neglecting it? The reality is, most people have never really been taught how to tend their souls. I Heard God Laugh will help you to do just that, and so much more.
