PARENTAL STATEMENT OF COMMITMENT

Please carefully read and initial after each statement to confirm that you understand these expectations.

The Church reminds parents that they are the primary educators of their children, especially in the Faith. Therefore, PREP does not take the place of parents, but rather assists them in their efforts to share their faith with their children. _____
 initial

At Baptism, parents make a solemn commitment to raise their children in the practice of the Faith. Families need to actively participate in the life of the Church, especially in Sunday Mass. _____
 initial

Parents support the Religious Education curriculum by participating in the parent sessions and working with their children at home. They ensure that their children attend class regularly, are prepared and have completed assigned work. _____
 initial

Parents cooperate with the Catechist and the Pastor to promote the best possible learning experience for their children which is centered on the Faith. _____
 initial

I understand these expectations and will do my part in cooperation with the Catechists, Pastor and the Parish Religious Education Program.
